

S

P

E

LL

O

Write your spelling words - vowels in red and consonants in blue.

Use playdough to create your words.

Write each word into a sentence.

Use all the words from your list in one sentence that makes sense.

On a journey, see if you can use the letters from car number plates to spell your words.

Write your words in different colours.

Write your words as leaf shapes.

See how many times you can use your words in a conversation.

How many times can you write your words in one minute?

Use magnetic letters or letter tiles to spell your words.

Create a set of flashcards with your spelling words.

Make a bingo game to play with family members using your spelling words.

Write your words in a pyramid.
a
ab
abo
about

Can you add letters to make your words longer? e.g. turn his into this

Can you take away letters to make your words smaller?
e.g. its into it

Create a secret code to spell out your words.
e.g. A = 1, B = 2

Sort your words into alphabetical order.

Use a magazine or newspaper to cut out and spell your words.

Create a wordfind using your spelling words, for a family member to solve.

How much is each spelling word worth?
A = $1, B = $2
etc.

Get a family member to test you on your words. For each one you get wrong, write it out 3 times.

Use chalk to write your words on the footpath or concrete. (Ask an adult first!)

Write a rhyming word that goes with each spelling word.
e.g. cat - hat

Order your words from easiest to hardest to spell, then tell an adult why you ordered them like this.

Create a piece of artwork using your spelling words.

Type your words on a computer and email them to your teacher.

Write each of your words in a fancy font.

Break each of your words into sound boxes.

a b ou t

Write your words then draw boxes around them so you can see short letters and tall letters.

a b ou t